I JUMP THROUGH SO MANY HOOPS FOR YOU

Why? JUST LIKE- HOW

I mean, I see YOUR POINT

You're not wrong- BUT

IT'S YOUR FAULT.

I did the thing you told me not to that one night
It was cold and you weren't there and the moon
yeah the moon looked really nice so round
I tried to turn my back to it but it was so bright and would turn me around so I did eventually pass by that one place after a right turn then left and a knock- then another, and she forced me to go inside because she had a gun and I didn't want to die. You wouldn't want me to die — would you? But I wasn't in there long and I love you. Don't say it back- I know you do too
I just wanted to tell you what happened again because you are the best and I-I love you, you just get on my nerves sometimes because

You're not wrong- BUT

IT'S YOUR FAULT.
